Àngels Muñoz Estape

Gold International Diamond, Spain

"Offering this wonderful opportunity and inspiring people to live a life of freedom, strength, and happiness is in essence giving others back their hope."

Gold International Diamond Àngels Muñoz Estape first heard about 4Life Transfer Factor® through one of her patients. She learned more about 4Life® and the business opportunity through Gold International Diamond Carme Solà Xalabardé.

Àngels was raised in Barcelona and obtained a doctorate degree in cardiology. She has enjoyed building a 4Life® business because it has allowed her to achieve balance in her lifestyle. "Because I joined 4Life, it opened doors for me to achieve freedom and develop my full potential," remarked Àngels. "This is a real opportunity to grow personally and contribute socially."

Àngels is grateful for the effort, perseverance, confidence, and love of all the people on her team who have helped her get this far. Because of their marvelous teamwork, each one is getting closer to reaching their goals through 4Life.

"I feel blessed and privileged. The process of becoming a Gold International Diamond has been a gift. Thanks to the effort, perseverance, confidence, and love of all the people in my team, it has been possible to get this far," commented Àngels.

Àngels seeks to be a leader who has a positive attitude, listens carefully, plans ahead, and makes an effort to create unity between her team members. She advises people pursuing a 4Life business to stay in tune with their dreams as their source of inspiration. She also offers practical tips such as going to training meetings and events, reading self-help books, and staying disciplined.

Àngels recognizes that because of 4Life she is helping make other people's dreams come true. "Offering this wonderful opportunity and inspiring people to live a life of freedom, strength, and happiness is in essence giving others back their hope. 4Life is the vehicle to the lifestyle that we all deserve," shared Àngels.
