With the Power of 4—home meetings, product socialization, Diamond4Life enrollment, and Power Pool participation—you can achieve greater retention, teamwork, and financial freedom.

During November 2012–January 2013, U.S. and Caribbean distributors can participate in the Power of 4 Promotion for a chance to win fabulous prizes, including two grand prize Great Escape+ trips for two. Start putting more power into your business today!

How do I qualify?

For each month during the promotional period that you complete the following three tasks, you will earn a custom 4Life messenger bag and one ticket toward the monthly Apple iPad giveaway. At the end of the contest, all tickets earned throughout the promotional period will be entered into the grand prize drawing for two U.S. Great Escape+ trips for two people each.

Plus, take advantage of special “ticket multipliers” under the three requirements for great ways to increase the number of eligible tickets in the grand prize drawing!

To participate, complete the following each month during the contest:

1. Personally purchase the Power of 4 pack or 200 LP of 4Life products.

Ticket multiplier: For every additional 100 personal LP you order during the month (above 200 LP), you’ll be awarded an additional ticket. (Limit three additional tickets per month.)

2. Upgrade four personally enrolled distributors to the Power of 4 pack or the equivalent of 200 LP.
